GEN. FOCH ANSWERS GERMAN PEACE DRIVE WITH VIGOROUS OFFENSIVES

HAIG'S FORCES RESUME FIGHTING SOUTH OF VALENCIENNES FOR GAINS, WHILE FRENCH STRIKE NORTH OF LAON

NEW ADVANCES ON BALKAN FRONT

General Foch's military offensive, answering the German peace drive, continued with full vigor today.

General Haig announced resumption of the fighting south of Valenciennes. Ventagis-Sur-Escaut, 6 miles south of Valciennes, has been taken by the British The British also took Haing, four miles southwest of Valenciennes, and pushed forward at other points

French troops launched a new attack along the Serre and Souche Rivers north of Loan The assault was accompanied by heavy artillery and machine gun fire the war office stated

New advances on the Balkan front, particularly in the valley of the great Morava, were reported by the Serbian communique.

The peace offensive was marked by reports of demonstrations in Berlin. The release of Carl Liebknecht, Socilalst leader, from prison was erported to have been the signal for a great demonstration. The people demanded abdication of the Kaiser and a republican government for Germany, the reports say. Dispatches from Copenhagen quoting travellers out of Germany have declared that the German demands for a Democracy have become national and the people are all demanding that the Kaiser abdicate. The Reichstag has given its endorsement to the German peace efforts by a vote of confidence in Chancellor Maxmillan. The vote was 192 to 52.

FLU CONTINUES TO RAGE NEARBY TOWNS AFFECTED

FIVE HUNDRED CASES IS CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATE FOR CLEARFIELD, AND SITUATION IS NOW ALARMING

WOODLAND AND SURVEYOR SUFFER

THOUGHTLESS BUT NEAR CRIMINAL

Nero fiddled while Rome burned nd in a sense we hve with us today a near parallel case. A physician advises us today that he waited fully fifteen minutes for the use of a telephone line while two persons conversed over an entirely unimportant and unnecessary matter. In fact, the two persons were simply telling each other what they had heard about this, that and the other case of influenza, and were entirely ignorant of the fact that their useless conversation was holding up one of the only seven persons in this community who are in position to give aid and comfort to the sick.

The telephone is no longer a luxury, a mere convenience or a plaything. It is a grim necessity and should be used for only absolutely essential matters of conversation.

Just before going to press or at 2:45 o'clock we called the Emergency hospital and were informed by Miss Jessie Mitchell, acting superintendent, that there were now a total of fifty-two patients domiciled at the hospital, which should serve to give some idea as to the spread of the disease.

Dr. Frederick Howe is very seriously ill and the very worst is feared in his case.

The flu situation reains critical in Clearfield and while health conditions are not necessarily alarming it behooves everybody to redouble their precautions against the disease.

The health authorities prophesied that the epidemic would reach the peak of onset this week and that prophesy is working out to the letter. Therefore we have every reason to expect that the disease will soon be on the wane.

Thanks to the prompt and efficient action of the local health authorities the epidemic is being admirably handled here, and thus far it has been possible with the facilities at hand to properly take care of the stricken ones as the serious cases develop without, as has been the case in many of our neighboring towns, having the epidemic break on an unprepared community and simply swamp the available physicians and nurses, thereby making proper care impossible with its consequent heavy toll in death.

Many additional cases developed yesterday and last evening a conservative estimate placing the number of cases existing this morning at at least five hundred.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon there were a total of twenty-eight cases under treatment at the emergency hospital. During the late afternoon and last evening nine additional patients were taken in and the total this rorning was thirty-seven.

The hospital has accommodations for just nine more patients or forty-six in all.

The matter of further increase in hospital capacity is in the capable hands of John M. Urey, acting secretary of the board of health and chairman Woodward of the county committee on Public Safety. They have arranged for the erection of the large tent of the Clearfield hospital on the lawn near the emergency hospital. This was fitted up and will have capacity for sixteen additional patients and will be sufficient at least for today's needs.

In addition to the large tent another tent has been erected and equipped for the nurses in charge. Three other tents 12x16 feet in size have been erected and should the occasion warrant it will also be equipped to receive patients.

Floors will be laid in all of these tents and they will be made as comfortable as is necessary and as advantageous as the building proper.

The vaccine or serum mentioned in The Progress arrived in Clearfield yesterday and hundreds of our people are taking advantage of the opportunity to be inoculated against the influenza. The Harbison-Walekr Refractories company has purchased $1,500 worth of the stuff to be used on the men in their plant here. The vaccine comes highly recommended from Philadelphia where it was used with pronounced success.

The flu has struck Woodland and according to reports from there this mroning is spreading rapidly.

Surveyor has been hit by the flu. The town's one physician Dr. Lewis, is one of the victims and conditions were reported bad this morning. Fred G. Betts, of the Goshen Coal company accompanied by Dr. Frantz went down this morning to render necessary a'd.

County Public Safety Committee Secretary John M. Bain went to Washington today to make a personal appeal to General Crowder and the war department to defer the call of Dr. J. Paul Frantz for army duty until the present epidemic of Spanish flu subsides.

There were four more deaths at St. Mary's Pa., yesterday. One of the victims was the brother of Mrs. C. W. Dooley, of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. Dooley went to St. Mary's last evening by automobile to attend the funeral.

WILL THEY FAIL NOW

Not once have the women of this community failed to perform a public duty and when this matter is forcibly called to their attention we do not believe that they will fail now.

Yesterday an appeal was made for women with some knowledge of nursing or caring for the sick to assist the overworked force at the new Emergency hospital.

The response to the appeal has not been equal to the importance of the situation. The New Emergency hospital must have more help. The authorities make this call to the women of Clearfield.

Your neighbors are suffering and in need of help. Do not let it be necessry to make this plea again.

WILSON LIKELY TO TAKE HAND IN ELECTION

Democratic Politicians Urge The President To Appeal for the Election of Democrats

WOULD NOT BE CONSISTENT

President Wilson late tody appealed to the country for a vote of confidence in his leadership both at home and abroad" by returning the Democratis congress.

In a statement addressed to his 'fellow nountrymen" he said the Republican leaders "have unquestionably been pro-war but anti-administrative" and said "that an election of a Republican majority in the House" would be interpreted on the other side as a repudiation of his leadership.

By Gus J. Karger

Washington, D. C., Oct. 23—Washington politicions are beginning to display some anxiety with regard to the Congressional campaigns. They are wondering what form they will assume as the influenza epidemic may materially interfere with their normal course.

On the Reublican side of the House there is some anxiety with regard to the attitude President Wison will assume. Will he, in spite of the fact politics has been declared adjourned—many of Mr. Wilson's friends construing the declaration to mean that Republican politics has been adjourned, while the Democratic caucuses are to continue—will Mr. Wilson, in spite of this broad announcement, take an active part in the campaign.

Obviously, something is in the wind. Postmaster General Burleson is always in favor of exercise of practical political measures, and his counsel, it is thoroughly understood here, has been in favor of presidential activity of some sort. Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, has demonstrated a conviction in the efficiency of Wilsonian political declarations, and is known to support Mr. Burleson's contention. Both are said to have urged upon President Wilson the need of coming out, in spoken or written word, to the effect that a "Democratic Congress is demanded in order to sustain the President in his war aims." Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, and Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, respectively chairman of the military affairs and foreign relations committee of the Senate, have advised against it. Political leaders on both sides are awaiting the outcome.

Among Republicans a feeling prevails that President Wilson is estopped by previous declarations from asking for a Democratic congress on the ground that without it he can not successfully push necessary war measures. The Republicans of congress on numerous occasions, have stood with greater soidarity behind the President than the Democrats. The fact that the leading Democrats of the House, Speaker Clark, Kitchin, Dent, Padgett and other committee chairmen, deserted Mr. Wilson when he asked for the enactment of a selective service act, and that Republican leadership assumed by Julius Kahn, of California, ranking minority member of the military affairs committee, is responsible for the passage of that law, without which the war could not be fought to a successful conclusion, has not been forgotten by the American people, and never will be.

President Wilson has found it necessary to interfere in primary contests between Democrats for congressional and senatorial nominations on the score that the sitting member, seeking to return, did not merit the confidence of his constituencies because of his lack of war enthusiasm and his failure to support the President. He did it in the case of Representatives Slayden of Texas and Huddleson, of Alabama, of Senators Vardaman, of Mississippi and Hardwick of Georgia. He asked for the defeat of Blease, candidate for the Senate in South Carolina, and the people of Cleveland defeated Representatives Crosser and Gordon on the same grounds.

In all these instances, with the exception of one, President Wilson carried his point. The people of the districts and states in question recognized the soundness of his position. They regarded the candidates denounced by Mr. Wilson as unfit to remain in the war councils of the nation, and they defeated them.

But the Republicans, fully in sympathy with the policy which aims to keep out of public life men who declined to recognize the existence of a state of war, and of the men who by virtue of Pacifist inclinations declined to support Mr. Wilson's demand for a selective service act, are not disposed to believe that the people of the United States will accept the President's words when spoken as the leader of his party rather than as the leader of the nation, as carrying compelling force. Mr. Wilson on two or three occasions stepped out of his role as President and undertook, as titular leader of the Democratic party, to dictate to all the voters instead of only to those who are affiliated iwth the Democratic party. In all these instances the distinction was quickly understood and accepted, and Mr. Wilson failed to work his will.

In Wisconsin he interfered in the senatorial campaign, attacking the Republican candidate Mr. Lenroot, not because he had failed him when the war declaration and the selective service act were pending, but because he

GARFIELD SAYS FUEL ADMINISTRATION CAN'T ACCEDE TO ANTHRACITE MINERS DEMANDS

Wash, Oct. 25,—The Fuel Administrator Garfield this afternoon announced that the Fuel Administration cannot accede to the demands of the bituminous coal workers for an increase in wages as present conditions do not appear to justify the increase.

Mrs. Lydie Edwards was advised by telegraph this morning that her son Dr. Ernest Edwards of LaJunta, Col., had been suffering with influenza and it would be impossible for him to come east to attend the funeral of his late brother, Leno W. Edwards, Esq. Mr. Edward's remains were interred in Hillcrest cedetery this afternoon.

THREE DEATHS AT DUBOIS

The undertakers are still continuing to receive many calls for service each day and are being hard pressed to keep up with their work. Yesterday a total of ten calls were made, eight of them being for persons who had died as a result of the influenza. But three of these persons resided in the city proper. This is a somewhat lower death rate in the city than the day before.

According to reports by the health authorities, there was a total of about 80 new cases yesterday, a slight decrease from the day before. It is believed that conditions are slightly better than they have been, but the epidemis is far from being overcome, and only vigilance will save many more lives.

EVAN J. JONES

Our next Congressman from this district should and will be Evan J. Jones. A man who has made good in private life against many odds he is receiving the active support of every man in this county who has met him nnd observed his sterling qualities and statesmanlike personality. Mild in manner yet forceful in argument he is of the type of man who will win recognition at the hands of his congressional colleagues. Clear of vision and steadfast in purpose he will be a leader and not a figurehead in the legislative halls of our nation. A gifted speaker, not in oratory but in logic, he is able to say in a few minutes what a fog horn politician would require hours to say He has a mind of his own and will not blindly follow any man or set of men who will seek to further strangle the real liberty of the people of the United States by setting up despotic rules. Owing to the ban on politics during the Loan campaign and the advisibility of not holding meetings during the influenza epidemic it has been impossible for Mr. Jones to get to see but a few of the voters in each county. Those who have met him are for him. He is not the kind who try to tell all they know in a few minutes of conversation. A good listener and a clear thinker he has his ear close to the ground of public sentiment and knows what the people want. Mr. Jones is on the Republican ticket. The importance of electing a Republican congressman is being discussed in various newspapers today and will be more fully discussed during the coming week. We do not propose to discuss it in this issue. But we know Mr. Jones and our opinion of him is just the same as all others who have come to know him. He is a man among men. A big man and one who will truly represent this distrct at Washington.

"The Glorious Fourth"

has held the attention of the whole Nation for the past month.

No ball game or political campaign ever called forth so much enthusiam as when, district by district, the Country went "over the top."

The banding together of a whole Nation by a common purpose, inspired by a Great Ideal, made possible the present achievement.

We join in the congratulations which everybody is extending to everybody else. It is a sort of "mutual congratulatory society" which celebrates the successful termination of the campaign for the "The Glorious Fourth."

The officers of this Institution especially thank the patrons who have helped so splendidly in making most effective its co-operation with the Government.

CLEARFIELD'S PIONEER THE CLEARFIELD TRUST CO. SAVINGS BANK

JUDGE KEPHART OUR NEIGHBOR FROM CAMBRIA COUNTY A GENERAL CHOICE

Interest in the contest over the election of two members of the Supreme Court threatens to overshadow the gubernatorial fight, which so far has been marked by apathy.

There are four leading candidates for the two places which will be filled by the voters at the election, Tuesday, November 5.

The vote for the Supreme Court justices is cast on the non-partisan ballot, which is separate from the ballot on which the names of party candidates for offices appear.

Because of an old clause in the State Constitution, when two justices are to be elected at the same election each voter is entitled to vote for only one candidate. Prior to the passage of the non-partisan law the justices were elected on the party ballot and the clause was inserted to insure a minority representation on the bench.

Under the non-partisan law, however, it is possible for the dominant party to defeat the purposes of this constitutional clause. Should the two leading Republican candidates for the two places poll the highest vote they would be elected and the Democrats would be deprived of the representation the Constitution would give them.

The Candidates.

The four leading candidates for the two Supreme Court places are Superior Court Judge John W. Kephart, Charles B. Lenahan, a Wilkes-Barre lawyer; and Alexander Simpson, Jr., of Philadelphia, and Edward I. Fox, of Easton, two present justices who were appointed by Governor Brumbaugh to fill vacancies caused by death.

Judge Kephart is believed by those familiar with political conditions to have the best chance of the four. It is expected that he will receive the support of the active Republican organization workers over the State.

Justice Simpson, the other Republican, will receive the vote of the Vare organization in Philadelphia. With the heavy Republican vote in Philadelphia to start with Justice Simpson will have a strong advantage over the two Democrats, Mr. Lenahan and Justice Fox.

Should anything like the normal Republican vote be polled there is a strong possibility that both Judge Kephart and Justice Simpson will win.

Palmer for Fox.

Justice Fox has the backing of the Palmer-McCormick faction and Lenahan is supported by the faction which is lined up behind Judge Bonniwell, the gubernatorial nominee.

Judge Kephart, who is counted on to receive the big up-State Republican vote, was elected to the Superior Court in 1913 without the backing of any political faction.

Running independently, he conducted one of the most aggressive publicity campaigns in the history of Pennsylvania politics and won over the slated organization candidate. His vote, exclusive of Philadelphia, in that contest totaled more than 210,000.

He is forty-six years old, and at the time of his election was the youngest man ever elected to the Superior Court bench. Judge Kephart was an orphan and was educated in the Soldiers' Orphans' School, at McAllisterville. He earned enough money as a telegraph operator on the Pennsylvania Railroad to pay his way through Dickinson Law School and practiced for nineteen years prior to his election.

He is a brother of State Terasurer Harmon M. Kephart.

800 WOMEN NEEDED BY SALVATION ARMY

Commander Evangeline Booth Says War Relief Work Must Be Extended.

Commander Evangeline Booth, leader of the Salvation Army in the United States, has been suddenly called upon to furnish 800 additional war work women for France. The request is contained in a report just received by her from Col. William A. Barker of the Salvationist forces, whom she sent to France over a year ago to establish hutment and general war relief work with the American troops.

"We will do all we can to fill this demand," said Commander Booth when discussing the approaching United War Work Campaign, "and the need itself should impress the American public all the more with the absolute necessity for sustaining and enlarging the war relief work of the seven organizations, besides the noble Red Cross, now merged for a drive for funds. Each is a vital cog in a vast machine for human relief, and each is indispensible, serving its particular elements in its own way.

"The Salvation Army was born in hardship, reared in privation and trained to every phase of human misery and how to cope with it. Perhaps that accounts in some degree for the success our work has attained and for which we are thankful.

"We are of the common people, and we toil on a practical basis. We learned the lesson of how to do it in the Boer war, when we stood at the side of Britain's troops and weathered it out to the end. We have been tried by fire, and the mothers and fathers of America, as in other countries, trust the Salvation Army to do the thing they would like to do for their men if they but had the chance.

"With 1,210 trained workers at the front, operating from 420 huts and dugouts, the Salvation Army is doing, has done and will continue to do its best for the cause of humanity and Liberty."

JUDGE RICE FAVORS PORTER

Former President Judge of Superior Court Says He Merits Re-election.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—The lawyers and judges in Pennsylvania who have interested themselves in promoting the campaign of Judge William David Porter, a candidate for re-election to the Superior Court, are laying stress upon the testimonial accorded him by the Honorable Charles E. Rice, former President Judge of the Superior Court and for many years an associate of Judge Porter.

In emphasizing the importance of retaining in judicial office competent and experienced judges, the former President Judge said:

"It affords me pleasure to have an opportunity to say a word in behalf of Judge William David Porter who served with me on the Superior Court. I have always taken the position that capable and faithful judges could better perform their duties if retained in office than by relinquishing the same to inexperienced newcomers. Anything that tends to the independence of the judiciary directly enhances a fair and impartial administration of justice according to law. Any argument in favor of the principle of retaining capable and faithful judges is applicable to Judge Porter for he should be re-elected to the Superior Court.

"In all his public service he has exhibited high ideals and unusual fitness for the duties of the judicial office. This is not my opinion alone, but that of the judges who have served with him; of lawyers who have practised before him, and of laymen of every description who know of the splendid service that he has rendered. I speak not from hearsay, but from personal knowledge of the qualifications of Judge Porter, and I welcome the opportunity to encourage my fellow-citizens to do their utmost to re-elect him a Judge of the Superior Court."

The management of the Ontario Agriculture college has decided to admit women to all the regular college courses, largely in recognition of the excellent assistance they gave on the farm during the past summer.

"NO COMPROMISE ATTITUDE TO HUN" MEANS SUCCESS FOR REPUBLICANS

[illegible]

Keystone Democratic Record

marked the period dominated by the Democrats. They are anxious to provide funds and all other steps needful that will enable the Government to bring the war to a successful conclusion at the earliest possible moment. But the Democratic Congress has failed to provide adequately for the most pressing needs of the war, and has even refused to appropriate the money requested by the President for the purpose.

After the War Problems

They are putting now for problems of reconstruction and commercial readjustment after the war. But the Democratic Congress has failed to provide adequately for the most pressing needs of the war today as it was four weeks ago, four months ago, eight months ago, or a year ago. Legislation will be introduced in Congress by Republicans with Pennsylvania's interests chiefly in mind. Republicans will have a voice in shaping the future destinies of this nation.

A Republican Congress at this time, the leaders point out, means a step forward in Republican presidential years hence, and with that object in view campaign committees are making special efforts to elect all the Republican candidates.

"No American May Refuse," Cardinal Gibbons Says

James Cardinal Gibbons, the leading Catholic churchman in America, has issued a strong appeal in support of the United War Work Campaign.

It is an American campaign," he said. "Its appeal is one that no American can refuse. Americans [illegible] another triumphant answer to the cry that we are in this war [illegible] until some one can [illegible] through to victory. Into the splendid work of sustaining the morale of our fighting men they [illegible] organizers of America have thrown themselves. The American people will raise the sum they ask—generously and gladly."

CATHOLIC BOYS JOIN WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

Girls, Too, Will Stand With Them Behind Every Fighter at the Front.

To put behind every Catholic fighter in France the spirit of one boy or girl in every parish throughout the United States is the plan of the National Catholic War Council for backing the Victory Loan and Victory Girls Inspired Give Division of the United Work War Campaign to raise $170,000,000 for the boys over there during the week of November 11-18.

Through diocesan, county and parish organizations the rallying of one youngster for every man who has gone to war in every community is already under way. By their own efforts and not by contributions it is expected that these sturdy little sponsors for the boys abroad will each raise at least five dollars for the joint welfare work of the Y M C A, Y W C A, National Catholic War Council including the Knights of Columbus, War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board American Library Association and Salvation Army.

Boys and girls in every Catholic parish throughout the United States are already being picked to represent each fighting man who has left their church for the front. In every home that flies a service flag little brothers and sisters, sons and daughters are eagerly volunteering to look out for the share of their family fighter in the huge joint welfare campaign for all the boys abroad.

BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS SUPPLIED BY A. L. A.

English Camp Shows the Good Work of That Organization for Our Boys.

Something like 1,700 packages of standard books are distributed daily among 7,000 enlisted men by Miss Ethel Bentley Kelly, librarian at the Y M C A war secretary Woodley First Camp of the American Expeditionary Forces in Southern England. The number of books at this camp varies from 60,000 to 100,000.

This is one of the reasons why it is necessary that the Y M C A, Y W C A, National Catholic War Council and Knights of Columbus War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board and Salvation Army raise $170,000,000 in the United War Work Campaign, November 11-18. Besides furnishing the American Library Association and hundreds of Y M C A Motor trucks and other conveyances for the distribution of books, the Y M C A has established libraries in all its huts and tents. Only this week the Association announced that it had received from Andrew Carnegie $1,000,000 to be used for the purchase of books. The Y M C A plans to add to its present collection of 1,500,000 volumes.

CONGRESS TO BE EMERGENCY STOP FOR POSTAL AEROPLANES

Washington, Oct 24—Actual operation of the New York-Chicago air route is promised by the first or second week of December by Postmaster General Burleson. He announced that a more definite date could not be fixed, as the delay is due to the necessary equipment.

The distance between the two cities will be covered by the post office airplane in about ten stops. Each machine will have a carrying capacity of about 20,000 letters.

The new air routes will be laid out in three legs. The first will be from New York to Bellefonte a distance of 200 miles with an emergency station at Lewistown. The second leg from Bellefonte to Cleveland, 215 miles. The emergency station will be at Clarion 87 miles from Bellefonte. The final leg from Cleveland to Chicago a distance of 328 miles will have an intermediate station at Bryan O. Representatives of the post office department will visit the stopping points on the route this week to arrange for the immediate erection of hangers and preparations of landing fields.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deter, South Side, are quarantined indoors as both having been attacked by the influenza.

Charles Maurer, superintendent of the fire clay works at Lumber City, is very ill at his home suffering from Sanish influenza.

Miss Emma Robinson is housed up for a few days taking excellent care of a bealed jaw.

Paul Harley lettered the windows of the Herald office yesterday. It is a neat and tasty job.

Smith and Woodward have men engaged in cutting the timber on the Harry Kittleberger farm near town. When that job is completed they will resume cutting on cemetery hill.

Mrs. Sarah Ammerman who had been ill for several days this week, is able to be about again.

Frank Weber, who recently purchased the Dr. Schlappi home on Irvin Hill has moved his family from Brady township and domiciled them in his purchase.

The Gourley family on Ridge avenue, who were under the care of Dr. Jenkins for some time are all convalescing and will soon be well again.

Bills were posted yesterday announcing the time, place and date of holding the November election. At this time Curwensville voters will be asked to vote on increasing the bonded indebtedness of the borough $12,000 for the purpose of purchasing new and more up to date fire apparatus and hose. While voters are not saying very much or how they will handle this question on election day, it is believed by those who promoted the idea, that the question will carry by a good majority. No doubt this borough does need some new hose, etc., it is a question whether it would be good policy at this time to spend such a large sum as asked in the purchase of an electric motor truck, etc. Heretofore the town has always been able to cope with all fires with the present apparatus, and it is the opinion of many that with the purchase of some new hose the apparatus now in use will be sufficient.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion — dark rings under your eyes — pimples — a bilious look in your face — dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 30c per box. All druggists.

Seven Big War Work Agencies, United In Relief Army, Take Care of Our Boys From Home Camps To Trenches

Activities of Organizations Which Have Joined in Drive For $170,500,000 So Varied That Uncle Sam's Fighting Men Can Find Clean, Wholesome Amusement in Every Camp and at the Front—What Your Money Is Doing.

HOME follows the soldier wherever he goes through the seven great organizations that join hands to help every boy who leaves home behind.

His first ride to camp from home is in a troop-train where a Y. M. C. A. secretary always abroad, always cheering lonely, homesick boys.

As soon as he gets to camp he finds that the Y. M. C. A., the K. of C., the Jewish Welfare Board, or the Salvation Army have the "huts" that have made them famous. There he can write letters home, play games, see motion picture shows, hear lectures, attend religious services, and keep up his studies in classes conducted regularly under the best of teachers and professors.

Can Meet His Friends

There, too, he finds the Hostess House of the Y. W. C. A., where his mother or sweetheart or his sister may come to see him, and the branch of the American Library Association where he can borrow books to read.

When the boy has a few days leave and goes into a strange city to spend it, he finds there the War Camp Community Service, ready and willing to direct him about the city, to tell him of the amusements and accommodations he will find.

When the time comes to start over there, the boy finds a Y. M. C. A. secretary on the troopship. He supplies writing paper, organizes games for the idle hours, and usually has moving-pictures which help out the evenings. The boy is sorry to leave him when they dock, but the first person he meets on French soil is another secretary, K. of C., or Y. M. C. A., or J. W. B., who tells him where he can go and what he can do in foreign city.

Go Right to the Front

At the front, perhaps, the greatest work is done. Here a real taste of HOME, the thing the boy craves more than any other one thing, comes with the hut erected by the friendly helpers. Here when there is no warm, dry spot in camp, he finds warmth and cheer, smiles, songs, a place to rest, writing paper, hot drinks, cigarettes.

In the trenches, the Salvation Army, the K. of C., and the Y. M. C. A. follow to the front line. Boys who come out of the front line, cold and dead-tired, meet a cheery smile and get a smoke and cup of hot chocolate. That is the nearest approach to home that a man in the trenches finds.

Even to the prison-camps the secretaries go, taking what cheer and comfort they can to the thousands of boys who are interned—both Allied and German.

Make Women Comfortable

The Y. W. C. A. has its huts for nurses, telephone girls, and for munition workers, in addition to the Hostess Houses which are replicas of the Hostess Houses in camps at home.

More than 3,600 separate buildings have been erected or rented. More than 15,000 uniformed workers are in service on both sides of the Atlantic. More than 500 tons of supplies go to France every week for the organizations to distribute to the boys. More than 15 miles of motion picture film goes to France each week for the boys' entertainment. Wherever a soldier or sailor or a marine goes, HOME goes with him, through the medium of one or the other of these seven great co-operating organizations.

LETTERS FROM OUR SOLDIER BOYS

LETTER FROM RUSSELL FLEGAL

September 19 1918

My Dear Mother:

There has been a little lapse of time since I last wrote, but during this period I have been chasing a few Huns. You probably know all there is to be known about our own little drive by this time so it is unnecessary for me to try to give any details. As I have often said before I will give you the fine points when I get back home and all these things happening now will be but mere visions of the past. The all important part just now is that I went thru the first few days of the fight and came out without a scratch. We were under the very muzzles of our guns when they burst forth their shower of shells and by day light over we went and on, we went and the cowards ran so fast we could hardly keep pace with them. It wasn't merely a hare and hound chase either for before we were relieved we side stepped many a machine gun bullet and ducked countless shells, more than once I wiped the cold sweat from my forehead and I guess others did too. But our old division put forth the goods as it has done more than once before. To think we drove the dogs from ground they have called theirs for four years but they have lost their happy homes and forever, too. It was interesting to see and talk to the French people who have stuck to their homes all these years while these Huns enslaved them. Guess maybe they were not glad to see the Americans. They simply beat a hasty retreat as they were not the least particular what they left behind. One might find anything from eats to iron crosses but I don't bother myself with relics of any sort. My one aim, as was that of most of us, was to make the Boche scratch gravel sky high and this we did and to a Queen's taste.

It is impossible to tell you even enough to give you a fair idea of what really takes place during a drive like this. There is too much, too many things happen it would be all but an endless letter. One man's part is but a mite, it's all of us put together that makes the Hun do the "about face." My part is small but believe me, Mother, there isn't many of the boys that try to take more in than I do. I see things and I don't forget them. I learn a lesson and it sticks to me as never before. Yesterday I received 18 letters, 3 post and several issues of The Progress, Needles to say I was contented. News from home, mother and friends what more might one ask for. I read each and every letter till I could almost give them off by memory. I was more than relieved to know you were feeling much better. I trust you are well by now. Do take care, Mother. Don't worry yourself with the unnecessary things.

So father got the auto fever again. I was more than glad to hear it for I believe you folks can enjoy a car more just now than ever before. Father said he wished I was home to keep the dust off it, well if he has it when I do get back I can surely make up for the lost time. Of course it will take a little time for me to get used to that life again. But remember this Mother when I get home my shoulder goes to the plough and stays there. My mind is made up along certain lines and I mean business. I suppose John keeps the boat pretty well oiled, not so?

I read H's and W's letters with interest and I can not help but call them recruits. They have some things to learn in this army game and one is to know when they are well fixed. Walts seems to me to be trying to buck the game and I would like to tell him this if it is not too late "it can not be bucked." I know exactly what he is up against, who he is dealing with and his attitude, he is all wrong. He thinks he had it hard. Goodness knows he never has seen any real hell and I only hope he never does. Let him take what I say for what it is worth. Horaces letters are typical and I hope he knows when to hit a feather bed, he always did in civilian life. The boys are old enough to think for themselves so I will simply think and say nothing.

I had a fine letter from Alta. She seems all wrapped up in her war work. It is certainly great for us boys over here to know that each and every one back home is doing his or her bit. You folks don't realize like we do that it takes the push from home even to start the drive like this one. It is the moral and financial support at home that gives us the "pep."

I received fathers' letters of credit and so have no more fear of me going broke. I have also received $50 from your cables both thru Comptoir National D'Escampte De Paris and from their agency of Barritz. I have received notice from Cox & Co. of $25 I think this the Red Cross credit don't you. But I will get it all straight as soon as I get back from the front this time. You dear ones at home have certainly done your best to help me. I will ever be thankful. I have $500 coming to me and I am depositing it with the pay master with my pay on my discharge.

I saw J. Barry just before we went over the top this time. I recognized him the minute I saw him. I think him all right. I will go to bat for him any time. I owe Dr. Fry a letter, my letter about seeing Guy Lockard in Rouen. I know you already report from home, from Dr. Fry and several issues of The Progress. Send me Curwensville Co. address. I know him well.

There is a possible chance of me getting my leave if we go back for a rest this time. It's only a chance tho, for a soldier doing actual duty is usually on the job nowadays. We have a real job on our hands and I guess you know our division is right on the job. The world will learn some day what our outfit has done.

Write Mrs. W. F. Jones, Moscow, Texas. This is the mother of my best pal. We go thru thick and thin together, always bunk together, etc.

Must close with best wishes to all and a prayer from the front to those at home.

WILL RECOMMEND TO KEEP SALOONS CLOSED INDEFINITELY

Pittsburgh, Oct. 24 —"Pennsylvania must be absolutely free of influenza before the ban closing theaters and saloons is lifted, said Dr. Adolph Koenig, county medical inspector yesterday. Dr. Carl Scaffle, representative of the state health commission, concurred in the statement. Although Philadelphia is about to be released from the epidemic, it would be a calamity to permit the opening of saloons and cafes, they said.

The decision to recommend the enforcement of the closing order was reached after a conference with men who are fighting the disease all over the state.

Dr. Scaffle and Dr. Koenig offered a mortality chart for Pennsylvania which indicates that the grip is about to take a throttle hold on Pittsburgh and its environs.

Major W. H. Davis, director of health, announced a death total of 155 from pneumonia and influenza. He said that 11,565 influenza cases to date showed a decrease despite the higher mortality.

MERCY MUNITIONS NEEDED IN TRENCHES

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, Fighting Author, Makes Stirring Appeal for Y. W. C. A.

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, who wrote "Carry On," says of the war work which the Y. W. C. A. is doing: "You at home cannot fight with your lives, but you can fight with your mercy. The Y. W. C. A. is offering you just this chance. It garrisons the women's support trenches, which lie behind the men's. It asks you to supply them with munitions of mercy that they may be passed on to us. We need such supplies badly. Give generously that we may the sooner defeat the Hun."

What Lieut. Dawson says of the Y. W. C. A. he might have said of all the national organizations which are coming together for the biggest financial campaign that organizations have ever headed. All the $170,500,000 to be raised by the seven great national organizations the week of November 11 will be used to garrison and supply the support trenches behind the lines. They are the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association, War Camps Community Service and Salvation Army.

American girls in various uniforms mingle strangely with picturesque Brittany costumes in France. The American Y. W. C. A. has a hostess house in Brittany where the Signal Corps women live and a hut where the nurses spend their free time. Both these centers are fitted with many of the comforts and conveniences of home.

"At a tea given at the nurses' hut one Saturday afternoon," writes Miss Mabel Warner, of Salina, Kansas, Y. W. C. A. worker there, "there was an odd gathering—one admiral, a bishop, a Presbyterian minister, a Roman Catholic priest, a doctor, an ensign, one civilian and myself."

58 JEWISH WORKERS GOING "OVER THERE"

Col. Barker Bids Godspeed to the Graduates of Training School.

The whole-souled co-operation between the seven great organizations working for the happiness and welfare of our soldiers and sailors was recently illustrated at the graduation exercises of the tenth class of the Jewish Welfare Board's Training School in New York. Col. William S. Barker, who went to France representing the Salvation Army with the first contingent of our troops and has been "over there" fifteen months, was the principal speaker and wished the fifty-eight Jewish workers of the class God-speed, while Louis Marshall, the prominent Jewish attorney and philanthropist of New York, lauded the work of the Salvation Army among the boys at the front.

"What our fighting boys need is inspiration and heart and character in those who are there to help them," declared Col. Barker. "You will represent in the camps and overseas the ideals and standards of the Jewish faith, and it is up to you above all things to be consistent in your religious practices. Practice what you preach. That, I am sure, has been the secret of our own success. If you live up to the principles of your faith and give what you have to give from a heart big with love, the boys will respect you, whether they be Protestant, Catholic or Jew."

The newly graduated field workers will make a total of 260 men doing field work in our camps and naval training stations under the auspices of the Jewish Welfare Board. The Board has about fifty "huts" in the various camps and maintains centers in all large cities where soldiers and sailors of all faiths are welcomed. A headquarters has recently been established in Paris, and 100 men are being recruited here for overseas work. There are now nearly 125,000 Jews serving in the army and navy.

CURE FOR BLUES NEAR THE CAMPS

Community Service Takes Place of Mother, Friends and Home for Soldiers.

Ten young officers of the Student Army Training Corps of the University of Detroit recently applied for a furnished house and a housekeeper who would not be a servant, but, as one young officer expressed it, "the sort of woman to whom the boys can call out 'Hello, mother!' when they come in the front door."

Homesickness is the malady for which War Camp Community Service supplies innumerable cures.

"We've got your number," says the W. C. C. S. to the homesick boy from camp with leisure to spend in any one of the three hundred towns scattered over the country. While he's wondering what on earth he'll do with himself when he gets there, not knowing a soul in town and with a limited percentage of his "thirty per" in his pocket, along comes a friendly printed card from the local branch of his own lodge announcing a reception that night especially for soldier members. By the same mail the Methodist church sends an announcement of all its meetings addressed to him, with This Means You printed at the bottom. How did they know he was a Methodist?

He had forgotten about the little "Personal Card" he made out at the adjutant's request during his first day in camp when it was only one of the endless details in the round of dentists and doctors and general confusion. The W. C. C. S. had not only his number, but his name and address. In home town, the name of the school he'd gone to and a good bit about the things he was fondest of doing—each fact written into a little blank on the card especially for it.

WILSON LIKEY TO TAKE HAND IN THE ELECTION

had voted against tabling the McLemore resolution warning American citizens not to travel on foreign ships. He referred to the vote on this resolution as the "crucial test" of loyalty, and the voters of Wisconsin took testimony on the charge. They declared the point not to have been well taken, acquitted Lenroot and sent him to the Senate. Again Mr. Wison, in the matter of woman suffrage, combined his duties as leader of the nation and leader of his party, by delivering an address to the senate, in which he took the ground that passage of the suffrage amendment was required as a war measure. The Senate pondered his demand and failed to sustain it. Mr. Wilson's plea did not change a single vote. The result did not mean that Mr. Wilson's leadership in the conduct of the war been adversely affected. It simply meant that the Senate did not share his belief that the suffrage question had a bearing on the successful conduct of the war. Had the Senate believed with him, the suffrage amendment would have been passed. But Senators generally were of the opinion that the question was a political and not a military one, and they registered their votes in accord with this opinion.

The same result is expected by the Republican leaders in event Mr. Wilson should take the advice of Burleson and Tumulty and declare a Democratic congress a war need—rather than a political need—of the administration. In promulgating such a statement, if Mr. Wilson should see fit to do so, he would have to appeal to the judgment of the voters of the country. If they really believe that Dent is making a better war chairman of the Military Affairs committee than Julius Kahn would make, or they really believe that the election of a Republican House would impair the war vigor of the administration, they will accept Mr. Wilson's appeal as coming from the seat of national authority. If they have no misgivings with regard to Republican loyalty, if they believe that Republican supremacy in the House and the Senate would tend to strengthen, rather than weaken, Mr. Wilson's efforts to bring the war to a victorious close. they will regard Mr. Wilson's appeal as being directed to them from the chief of the Democratic party, an appeal carrying political rather than patriotic significance.

It is not believed that Mr. Wison would wish to depreciate the value of the co-operation of the Republicans of Congress, which, on previous occasions, he has acknowledged. It is not believed that he would care to assume that position in the eyes of the public. The Republican leaders await the outcome with philosophical calmness.

Massachusetts voters at the coming election will pass on a proposed amendment to the State constitution, which will permit women to serve as notaries public.

CLEARFIELD "SACRIFICE AND BUY" CLUB

The ladies composing the membership of the "Buy and Sacrifice Club" have every reason to feel proud of their efforts to put the big loan across. During the last three days of the campaign when it begun to look as though the flu epidemic was going to upset the success of the Fourth Liberty Loan, the ladies conceived the idea that they must "buy bonds and further sacrifice pleasures and luxuries to guarantee the success of the loan. All of those who composed the membership had already bought a bond or two and therefore membership in the club meant an extra effort and an added sacrifice on their part. Following is the complete list of members. We are glad to thus give them public recognition for their efforts.

This "Club" was started as a last minute effort to urge women to buy bonds voluntarily in order to help the loan which all over the coutry, was threatening to fall behind

Its rule for membership—"If you have not bought a bond buy one. If you have bought a loan buy one more" sufficiently explains its object.

NECESSARY WAR MEASURE

The distribution of the city dailies in Clearfield will be placed under martial law if the present plans of Mayor Chase and the County Committee of Public Safety work out.

THE WAY TO USE VAPORUB FOR SPANISH INFLUENZA

The Influenza Germs Attack the Lining of the Air Passages. When Vapo Rub is Applied Over Throat and Chest, the Medicated Vapors Inhaled Loosen the Phlegm, Open the Air Passages and Stimulate the Mucous Membrane to Throw Off the Germs.

Most authorities now agree that what we call Spanish Influenza is simply the old-fashioned grip, which was epidemic here in 1889-90. The influenza germs enter through the nose and wouth and attack the lining of the air passages—nose ,throat and bronchial tubes.

There is no cure or specific for this disease, but Nature will throw off the attack, if only you conserve your strength. A competent physician should always be called. The use of VapoRub does not interfere with any internal treatment and it is now being used by broadminded physicians everywhere, in order to stimulate the lining of the air passages to throw off the grip germs, to aid in loosening the phlegm and keeping the air passages open, thus making the breathing easier. Hot. wet towels should be applied over the throat, chest and back between teh shoulder blades to open the pores. Then VapoRub should be rubbed in over the parts until the skin is red, spread on thickly and covered with two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck as the heat of the body liberates the ingredients in the form of vapors. These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the parts affected. At the same time, VapoRub absorbed through and stimulates the skin, attracting the blood to the surface, and thus aids in relieving the congestion within.

HOW TO AVOID THE DISEASE

Evidence seems to prove that this is a germ disease spread principally by human contact, chiefly thru coughing, sneezing, or spitting. So avoid persons having colds—which means avoiding crowds—common drinking cups, roller towels, etc. Keep up your bodily strength by plenty of exercise in the open air, and good food.

KEEP FREE FROM COLD

Above all, keep free from colds, as colds irritate the lining of the air passages and render them much better breeding places for the germs.

Use Vick's VapoRub at the very first sign of a cold. For a head cold, melt a little VapoRub in a spoon and inhale the vapors, or better, still, use VapoRub in a benzoin steam kettle. If this is not available, use an ordinary tea-kettle. Fill half-full of boiling water, put in half a teaspoon of VapoRub from time to time—keep the kettle just slowly boiling and inhale the steam arising.

NOTE—Vick's VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist, who found how to combine, in salve form, Menthol and Camphor with such volatile oils as Eucalyptus, Thyme, Cubebs, etc., so that when the salve is applied to the body heat, these ingredients are liberated in the form of vapors. VapoRub can be had in three sizes—25c, 50c, $1.20—at all druggists. While comparatively new in certain parts of the North, it is the standard home remedy in the South and West for all forms of cold troubles—over six million jars were sold last year. VapoRub is particularly recommended for children's croup or colds, as it is externally applied and can, therefore, be used freely and often—without the slightest harmful effects.

THE MOOSE ARE CALLING IN FORESTS OF NEW BRUNSWICK

When the grass begins to crackle underfoot; when the leaves begin to swirl in mad edies and the naked branches to reach after them impotently; when the morning crispness hints of coming frosts; then the man with a bit of sportsman blood in his veins, feels the call of the wild.

Follows a great furbishing and oiling of guns. There's rummaging through closets for boots and leggings and oilskins and warm duck coats. There's writing of letters to places with weird Indian names, to engage guides and camps. There's a lot of discussion with fellow-sportsmen as to what to take and what not to take, but there is no discussion as to where to go—at least not for the Eastern sportsman. New Brunswick is the hunting ground for him. Accessibility and plentifulness of game guide his choice.

The keen desire of every hunter going into the north woods is to get a moose head. This desire is usually gratified by going to New Brunswick. Its deep woods shelter moose, caribou and deer in great numbers. Black bear and Canada lynx, or wild-cat, offer further big game sport while small game is to be found in riotous abundance.

Stalking moose is the keenest of sport and demands much skill and caution. Moose, as a rule, feed "down wind" and, with their eyes protecting them from the front and their wonderful sense of small and hearing from the rear, stalking must be done "up wind." Getting your moose by "calling" is possible during the early days of the season.

New Brunswick guides and camps are unexcelled and are prepared to accommodate women who are often members of hunting parties. In the care of a guide like six-foot Harry Allen, a hunter—man or woman—is assured of royal sport, good care and an all-around fine time

NURSES ARE ALRIGHT

The Clearfield nurses in the army hospital at Azalea, N. C., are all enjoying their usual good health, according to latest report to Clearfield relatives and friends. Two nurses have died at that institution but the Clearfield girls are well and hearty as yet.

The present month marks the centennial anniversary of the birth of Elizabeth Payson Prentiss, the Maine school teacher whose juvenile stories, religious poems and other writings were widely read by the past generation.

Fifteen special policewomen have been appointed by the mayor of Caldwell, N. J., to assist in the enforcement of the curfew law recently enacted in that town.

GEN. FOCH ANSWERS GERMAN PEACE DRIVE WITH VIGOROUS OFFENSIVES

HAIG'S FORCES RESUME FIGHTING SOUTH OF VALENCIENNES FOR GAINS, WHILE FRENCH STRIKE NORTH OF LAON

NEW ADVANCES ON BALKAN FRONT

General Foch's military offensive, answering the German peace drive, continued with full vigor today.

General Haig announced resumption of the fighting south of Valenciennes. Ventagis-Sur-Escaut, 6 miles south of Valciennes, has been taken by the British The British also took Haing, four miles southwest of Valenciennes, and pushed forward at other points

French troops launched a new attack along the Serre and Souche Rivers north of Loan The assault was accompanied by heavy artillery and machine gun fire the war office stated

New advances on the Balkan front, particularly in the valley of the great Morava, were reported by the Serbian communique.

The peace offensive was marked by reports of demonstrations in Berlin. The release of Carl Liebknecht, Socilalst leader, from prison was erported to have been the signal for a great demonstration. The people demanded abdication of the Kaiser and a republican government for Germany, the reports say. Dispatches from Copenhagen quoting travellers out of Germany have declared that the German demands for a Democracy have become national and the people are all demanding that the Kaiser abdicate. The Reichstag has given its endorsement to the German peace efforts by a vote of confidence in Chancellor Maxmillan. The vote was 192 to 52.

FLU CONTINUES TO RAGE NEARBY TOWNS AFFECTED

FIVE HUNDRED CASES IS CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATE FOR CLEARFIELD, AND SITUATION IS NOW ALARMING

WOODLAND AND SURVEYOR SUFFER

THOUGHTLESS BUT NEAR CRIMINAL

Nero fiddled while Rome burned nd in a sense we hve with us today a near parallel case. A physician advises us today that he waited fully fifteen minutes for the use of a telephone line while two persons conversed over an entirely unimportant and unnecessary matter. In fact, the two persons were simply telling each other what they had heard about this, that and the other case of influenza, and were entirely ignorant of the fact that their useless conversation was holding up one of the only seven persons in this community who are in position to give aid and comfort to the sick.

The telephone is no longer a luxury, a mere convenience or a plaything. It is a grim necessity and should be used for only absolutely essential matters of conversation.

Just before going to press or at 2:45 o'clock we called the Emergency hospital and were informed by Miss Jessie Mitchell, acting superintendent, that there were now a total of fifty-two patients domiciled at the hospital, which should serve to give some idea as to the spread of the disease.

Dr. Frederick Howe is very seriously ill and the very worst is feared in his case.

The flu situation reains critical in Clearfield and while health conditions are not necessarily alarming it behooves everybody to redouble their precautions against the disease.

The health authorities prophesied that the epidemic would reach the peak of onset this week and that prophesy is working out to the letter. Therefore we have every reason to expect that the disease will soon be on the wane.

Thanks to the prompt and efficient action of the local health authorities the epidemic is being admirably handled here, and thus far it has been possible with the facilities at hand to properly take care of the stricken ones as the serious cases develop without, as has been the case in many of our neighboring towns, having the epidemic break on an unprepared community and simply swamp the available physicians and nurses, thereby making proper care impossible with its consequent heavy toll in death.

Many additional cases developed yesterday and last evening a conservative estimate placing the number of cases existing this morning at at least five hundred.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon there were a total of twenty-eight cases under treatment at the emergency hospital. During the late afternoon and last evening nine additional patients were taken in and the total this rorning was thirty-seven.

The hospital has accommodations for just nine more patients or forty-six in all.

The matter of further increase in hospital capacity is in the capable hands of John M. Urey, acting secretary of the board of health and chairman Woodward of the county committee on Public Safety. They have arranged for the erection of the large tent of the Clearfield hospital on the lawn near the emergency hospital. This was fitted up and will have capacity for sixteen additional patients and will be sufficient at least for today's needs.

In addition to the large tent another tent has been erected and equipped for the nurses in charge. Three other tents 12x16 feet in size have been erected and should the occasion warrant it will also be equipped to receive patients.

Floors will be laid in all of these tents and they will be made as comfortable as is necessary and as advantageous as the building proper.

The vaccine or serum mentioned in The Progress arrived in Clearfield yesterday and hundreds of our people are taking advantage of the opportunity to be inoculated against the influenza. The Harbison-Walekr Refractories company has purchased $1,500 worth of the stuff to be used on the men in their plant here. The vaccine comes highly recommended from Philadelphia where it was used with pronounced success.

The flu has struck Woodland and according to reports from there this mroning is spreading rapidly.

Surveyor has been hit by the flu. The town's one physician Dr. Lewis, is one of the victims and conditions were reported bad this morning. Fred C. Betts, of the Goshen Coal company accompanied by Dr. Frantz went down this morning to render necessary a'd.

County Public Safety Committee Secretary John M. Bain went to Washington today to make a personal appeal to General Crowder and the war department to defer the call of Dr. J. Paul Frantz for army duty until the present epidemic of Spanish flu subsides.

There were four more deaths at St. Mary's Pa., yesterday. One of the victims was the brother of Mrs. C. W. Dooley, of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. Dooley went to St. Mary's last evening by automobile to attend the funeral.

WILL THEY FAIL NOW

Not once have the women of this community failed to perform a public duty and when this matter is forcibly called to their attention we do not believe that they will fail now.

Yesterday an appeal was made for women with some knowledge of nursing or caring for the sick to assist the overworked force at the new Emergency hospital.

The response to the appeal has not been equal to the importance of the situation. The New Emergency hospital must have more help. The authorities make this call to the women of Clearfield.

Your neighbors are suffering and in need of help. Do not let it be necessry to make this plea again.

WILSON LIKELY TO TAKE HAND IN ELECTION

Democratic Politicians Urge The President To Appeal for the Election of Democrats

WOULD NOT BE CONSISTENT

President Wilson late tody appealed to the country for a vote of confidence in his leadership both at home and abroad" by returning the Democratis congress.

In a statement addressed to his 'fellow nountrymen" he said the Republican leaders "have unquestionably been pro-war but anti-administrative" and said "that an election of a Republican majority in the House" would be interpreted on the other side as a repudiation of his leadership.

By Gus J. Karger

Washington, D. C., Oct. 23—Washington politicions are beginning to display some anxiety with regard to the Congressional campaigns. They are wondering what form they will assume as the influenza epidemic may materially interfere with their normal course.

On the Reublican side of the House there is some anxiety with regard to the attitude President Wison will assume. Will he, in spite of the fact politics has been declared adjourned—many of Mr. Wilson's friends construing the declaration to mean that Republican politics has been adjourned, while the Democratic caucuses are to continue—will Mr. Wilson, in spite of this broad announcement, take an active part in the campaign.

Obviously, something is in the wind. Postmaster General Burleson is always in favor of exercise of practical political measures, and his counsel, it is thoroughly understood here, has been in favor of presidential activity of some sort. Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, has demonstrated a conviction in the efficiency of Wilsonian political declarations, and is known to support Mr. Burleson's contention. Both are said to have urged upon President Wilson the need of coming out, in spoken or written word, to the effect that a "Democratic Congress is demanded in order to sustain the President in his war aims." Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, and Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, respectively chairman of the military affairs and foreign relations committee of the Senate, have advised against it. Political leaders on both sides are awaiting the outcome.

Among Republicans a feeling prevails that President Wilson is estopped by previous declarations from asking for a Democratic congress on the ground that without it he can not successfully push necessary war measures. The Republicans of congress on numerous occasions, have stood with greater soidarity behind the President than the Democrats. The fact that the leading Democrats of the House, Speaker Clark, Kitchin, Dent, Padgett and other committee chairmen, deserted Mr. Wilson when he asked for the enactment of a selective service act, and that Republican leadership assumed by Julius Kahn, of California, ranking minority member of the military affairs committee, is responsible for the passage of that law, without which the war could not be fought to a successful conclusion, has not been forgotten by the American people, and never will be.

President Wilson has found it necessary to interfere in primary contests between Democrats for congressional and senatorial nominations on the score that the sitting member, seeking to return, did not merit the confidence of his constituencies because of his lack of war enthusiasm and his failure to support the President. He did it in the case of Representatives Slayden of Texas and Huddleson, of Alabama, of Senators Vardaman, of Mississippi and Hardwick of Georgia. He asked for the defeat of Blease, candidate for the Senate in South Carolina, and the people of Cleveland defeated Representatives Crosser and Gordon on the same grounds.

In all these instances, with the exception of one, President Wilson carried his point. The people of the districts and states in question recognized the soundness of his position. They regarded the candidates denounced by Mr. Wilson as unfit to remain in the war councils of the nation, and they defeated them.

But the Republicans, fully in sympathy with the policy which aims to keep out of public life men who declined to recognize the existence of a state of war, and of the men who by virtue of Pacifist inclinations declined to support Mr. Wilson's demand for a selective service act, are not disposed to believe that the people of the United States will accept the President's words when spoken as the leader of his party rather than as the leader of the nation, as carrying compelling force. Mr. Wilson on two or three occasions stepped out of his role as President and undertook, as titular leader of the Democratic party, to dictate to all the voters instead of only to those who are affiliated iwth the Democratic party. In all these instances the distinction was quickly understood and accepted, and Mr. Wilson failed to work his will.

In Wisconsin he interfered in the senatorial campaign, attacking the Republican candidate Mr. Lenroot, not because he had failed him when the war declaration and the selective service act were pending, but because he

THREE DEATHS AT DUBOIS

The undertakers are still continuing to receive many calls for service each day and are being hard pressed to keep up with their work. Yesterday a total of ten calls were made, eight of them being for persons who had died as a result of the influenza. But three of these persons resided in the city proper. This is a somewhat lower death rate in the city than the day before.

According to reports by the health authorities, there was a total of about 80 new cases yesterday, a slight decrease from the day before. It is believed that conditions are slightly better than they have been, but the epidemis is far from being overcome, and only vigilance will save many more lives.

EVAN J. JONES

Our next Congressman from this district should and will be Evan J. Jones. A man who has made good in private life against many odds he is receiving the active support of every man in this county who has met him nnd observed his sterling qualities and statesmanlike personality. Mild in manner yet forceful in argument he is of the type of man who will win recognition at the hands of his congressional colleagues. Clear of vision and steadfast in purpose he will be a leader and not a figurehead in the legislative halls of our nation. A gifted speaker, not in oratory but in logic, he is able to say in a few minutes what a fog horn politician would require hours to say He has a mind of his own and will not blindly follow any man or set of men who will seek to further strangle the real liberty of the people of the United States by setting up despotic rules. Owing to the ban on politics during the Loan campaign and the advisibility of not holding meetings during the influenza epidemic it has been impossible for Mr. Jones to get to see but a few of the voters in each county. Those who have met him are for him. He is not the kind who try to tell all they know in a few minutes of conversation. A good listener and a clear thinker he has his ear close to the ground of public sentiment and knows what the people want. Mr. Jones is on the Republican ticket. The importance of electing a Republican congressman is being discussed in various newspapers today and will be more fully discussed during the coming week. We do not propose to discuss it in this issue. But we know Mr. Jones and our opinion of him is just the same as all others who have come to know him. He is a man among men. A big man and one who will truly represent this distrct at Washington.

"The Glorious Fourth"

has held the attention of the whole Nation for the past month.

No ball game or political campaign ever called forth so much enthusiam as when, district by district, the Country went "over the top."

The banding together of a whole Nation by a common purpose, inspired by a Great Ideal, made possible the present achievement.

We join in the congratulations which everybody is extending to everybody else. It is a sort of "mutual congratulatory society" which celebrates the successful termination of the campaign for the "The Glorious Fourth."

The officers of this Institution especially thank the patrons who have helped so splendidly in making most effective its co-operation with the Government.

CLEARFIELD'S PIONEER THE CLEARFIELD TRUST CO. SAVINGS BANK

JUDGE KEPHART OUR NEIGHBOR FROM CAMBRIA COUNTY A GENERAL CHOICE

Interest in the contest over the election of two members of the Supreme Court threatens to overshadow the gubernatorial fight, which so far has been marked by apathy.

There are four leading candidates for the two places which will be filled by the voters at the election, Tuesday, November 5.

The vote for the Supreme Court justices is cast on the non-partisan ballot, which is separate from the ballot on which the names of party candidates for offices appear.

Because of an old clause in the State Constitution, when two justices are to be elected at the same election each voter is entitled to vote for only one candidate. Prior to the passage of the non-partisan law the justices were elected on the party ballot and the clause was inserted to insure a minority representation on the bench.

Under the non-partisan law, however, it is possible for the dominant party to defeat the purposes of this constitutional clause. Should the two leading Republican candidates for the two places poll the highest vote they would be elected and the Democrats would be deprived of the representation the Constitution would give them.

The Candidates.

The four leading candidates for the two Supreme Court places are Superior Court Judge John W. Kephart, Charles B. Lenahan, a Wilkes-Barre lawyer; and Alexander Simpson, Jr., of Philadelphia, and Edward I. Fox, of Easton, two present justices who were appointed by Governor Brumbaugh to fill vacancies caused by death.

Judge Kephart is believed by those familiar with political conditions to have the best chance of the four. It is expected that he will receive the support of the active Republican organization workers over the State.

Justice Simpson, the other Republican, will receive the vote of the Vare organization in Philadelphia. With the heavy Republican vote in Philadelphia to start with Justice Simpson will have a strong advantage over the two Democrats, Mr. Lenahan and Justice Fox.

Should anything like the normal Republican vote be polled there is a strong possibility that both Judge Kephart and Justice Simpson will win.

Palmer for Fox.

Justice Fox has the backing of the Palmer-McCormick faction and Lenahan is supported by the faction which is lined up behind Judge Bonniwell, the gubernatorial nominee.

Judge Kephart, who is counted on to receive the big up-State Republican vote, was elected to the Superior Court in 1913 without the backing of any political faction.

Running independently, he conducted one of the most aggressive publicity campaigns in the history of Pennsylvania politics and won over the slated organization candidate. His vote, exclusive of Philadelphia, in that contest totaled more than 210,000.

He is forty-six years old, and at the time of his election was the youngest man ever elected to the Superior Court bench. Judge Kephart was an orphan and was educated in the Soldiers' Orphans' School, at McAllisterville. He earned enough money as a telegraph operator on the Pennsylvania Railroad to pay his way through Dickinson Law School and practiced for nineteen years prior to his election.

He is a brother of State Terasurer Harmon M. Kephart.

800 WOMEN NEEDED BY SALVATION ARMY

Commander Evangeline Booth Says War Relief Work Must Be Extended.

Commander Evangeline Booth, leader of the Salvation Army in the United States, has been suddenly called upon to furnish 800 additional war work women for France. The request is contained in a report just received by her from Col. William A. Barker of the Salvationist forces, whom she sent to France over a year ago to establish hutment and general war relief work with the American troops.

"We will do all we can to fill this demand," said Commander Booth when discussing the approaching United War Work Campaign, "and the need itself should impress the American public all the more with the absolute necessity for sustaining and enlarging the war relief work of the seven organizations, besides the noble Red Cross, now merged for a drive for funds. Each is a vital cog in a vast machine for human relief, and each is indispensible, serving its particular elements in its own way.

"The Salvation Army was born in hardship, reared in privation and trained to every phase of human misery and how to cope with it. Perhaps that accounts in some degree for the success our work has attained and for which we are thankful.

"We are of the common people, and we toil on a practical basis. We learned the lessan of how to do it in the Boer war, when we stood at the side of Britain's troops and weathered it out to the end. We have been tried by fire, and the mothers and fathers of America, as in other countries, trust the Salvation Army to do the thing they would like to do for their men if they but had the chance.

"With 1,210 trained workers at the front, operating from 420 huts and dugouts, the Salvation Army is doing, has done and will continue to do its best for the cause of humanity and Liberty."

JUDGE RICE FAVORS PORTER

Former President Judge of Superior Court Says He Merits Re-election.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—The lawyers and judges in Pennsylvania who have interested themselves in promoting the campaign of Judge William David Porter, a candidate for re-election to the Superior Court, are laying stress upon the testimonial accorded him by the Honorable Charles E. Rice, former President Judge of the Superior Court and for many years an associate of Judge Porter.

In emphasizing the importance of retaining in judicial office competent and experienced judges, the former President Judge said:

"It affords me pleasure to have an opportunity to say a word in behalf of Judge William David Porter who served with me on the Superior Court. I have always taken the position that capable and faithful judges could better perform their duties if retained in office than by relinquishing the same to inexperienced newcomers. Anything that tends to the independence of the judiciary directly enhances a fair and impartial administration of justice according to law. Any argument in favor of the principle of retaining capable and faithful judges is applicable to Judge Porter for he should be re-elected to the Superior Court.

"In all his public service he has exhibited high ideals and unusual fitness for the duties of the judicial office. This is not my opinion alone, but that of the judges who have served with him; of lawyers who have practised before him, and of laymen of every description who know of the splendid service that he has rendered. I speak not from hearsay, but from personal knowledge of the qualifications of Judge Porter, and I welcome the opportunity to encourage my fellow-citizens to do their utmost to re-elect him a Judge of the Superior Court."

"GO-THE-LIMIT-CLUB"

Of the Liberty Loan Committee

The "Go-the-Limit Club" was one of the most effective mediums for helping Clearfield County and the city of Philipsburg to go over the top on the Fourth Liberty Loan. Starting with a nucleous of only a few thousand dollars the club grew in membership in only a few days until it reached the magnificent total of $2,515,000 or very nearly half the quota for the district.

Following is the list of members and the amount they loaned the goverment is the latest great loan to help the boys to victory. A handsome certificate will be awarded to each of the members which can be framed and kept to prove to future generations that the members gave unstintingly at a time when their country called upon them for money to make the world a decent place to live in.

Mr. H. B. Swoope of Madera, is the donor of these certificates. In addition to being a large contributor Mr. Swoope willingly and cheerfully offered to bear the expense of the certificates marked the period dominated by the Democrats. They are anxious to provide funds and all other means needful to win the war but the intent of the Democratic machine at home is becoming every hour more apparent.

After the War Problems

They are preparing now for problems of the reconstruction period. At the very time when Democratic success is urged for the purpose today as it was four weeks and months ago legislation will be introduced in Congress by Democrats with Pennsylvania's Democratic Solons Republicans they will have a voice in shaping the future destinies of this nation.

A Republican Congress at this time the leaders point out, would step forward a Republican president two years hence, and with their experience in new committees and State and County committees would bring special efforts to carry all the Republican candidates

"No American May Refuse," Cardinal Gibbons Says

James Cardinal Gibbons, the leading Catholic churchman in America, has issued a strong appeal in support of the United War Work Campaign.

It is an American campaign," he said. His appeal is one that no American can refuse. Americans answer will be another triumphant affirmation that we are in this war to a finish and will stand together through to victory. Into the splendid work of sustaining the morale of our fighting men they great social organizers of America have thrown themselves. The American people will raise the sum they ask—generously and gladly."

CATHOLIC BOYS JOIN WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

Girls, Too, Will Stand With Them Behind Every Fighter at the Front.

To put behind every Catholic fighter in France the support of one boy or girl in every parish throughout the United States is the plan of the National Catholic War Council for backing the Victory Loan and Victory Girls Parish and Give Division of the United Work War Campaign to raise $170,000,000 for the boys over there during the week of November 11-18.

Through diocesan, county and parish organizations the rallying of one youngster for every man who has gone to war in every community is already under way. By their own efforts and not by contributions it is expected that these sturdy little sponsors for the boys abroad will each raise at least five dollars for the joint welfare work of the Y M C A, Y W C A, National Catholic War Council including the Knights of Columbus, War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board American Library Association and Salvation Army.

Boys and girls in every Catholic parish throughout the United States are already being picked to represent each fighting man who has left their church for the front. In every home that flies a service flag little brothers and sisters, sons and daughters are eagerly volunteering to look out for the share of their family fighter in the huge joint welfare campaign for all the boys abroad.

BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS SUPPLIED BY A. L. A.

English Camp Shows the Good Work of That Organization for Our Boys.

Something like 1,700 packages of standard books are distributed daily among 7,000 enlisted men, Lieut. B. Lucas Fisher of Ida Rose, Ill., librarian at the Y M C A war secretary Woodley First Camp of the American Expeditionary Forces in southern England. The number of books at this camp varies from 60,000 to 100,000.

This is one of the reasons why it is necessary that the Y M C A, Y W C A, National Catholic War Council and Jewish Welfare Board War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and Salvation Army raise $170,000,000 in the United War Work Campaign, November 11-18.

Hundreds of books are taken out in this small camp and furnished by the American Library Association and handled by the Y M C A. Most of the books are sent to the camp libraries by the Y M C A, Y W C A, National Catholic War Council and Jewish Welfare Board War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and Salvation Army.

CLARION TO BE EMERGENCY STOP FOR POSTAL AEROPLANES

Washington, Oct. 24—Actual operation of the New York-Chicago air route is promised by the first or second week of December by Postmaster General Burleson. He announced that a more definite date could not be fixed, as the delay is due to the necessary equipment.

The distance between the two cities will be covered by the post office airplane in about ten stops. Each machine will have a carrying capacity of about 20,000 letters.

The new air routes will be laid out in three legs. The first will be from New York to Bellefonte a distance of 200 miles with an emergency station at Lewistown. The second leg from Bellefonte to Cleveland, 215 miles. The emergency station will be at Clarion Park 87 miles from Bellefonte. The final leg from Cleveland to Chicago a distance of 328 miles will have an intermediate station at Bryan Ohio. Representatives of the post office department will visit the stopping points on the route this week to arrange for the immediate erection of hangers and preparations of landing fields.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

It was reported yesterday that there are quite a number of men ill who board in one of the shanties down on the flat. The place has been quarantined from the fact that those who are ailing are suffering from a slight attack of Spanish influenza. Every precaution is being taken to keep the men within doors until their disease can be diagnosed.

Harry Bilger, clerk at the Park hotel, was a Clearfield visitor yesterday.

Mrs. David R. Fleming is confined her bed by illness.

John Whittaker, of Harrisburg, was in town yesterday and called upon his mother Mrs. A. B. Whittaker, South Side. He is a member of the contracting firm that constructed the new concrete bridge across Clearfield creek.

Isaac Stage, one of Clearfield's representative citizens, transacted business in Curwensville on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deter, South Side, are quarantined indoors as both having been attacked by the influenza.

Charles Maurer, superintendent of the fire clay works at Lumber City, is very ill at his home suffering from Sanish influenza.

Miss Emma Robinson is housed up for a few days taking excellent care of a bealed jaw.

Paul Harley lettered the windows of the Herald office yesterday. It is a neat and tasty job.

Smith and Woodward have men engaged in cutting the timber on the Harry Kittleberger farm near town. When that job is completed they will resume cutting on cemetery hill.

Mrs. Sarah Ammerman who had been ill for several days this week, is able to be about again.

Frank Weber, who recently purchased the Dr. Schlappi home on Irvin Hill has moved his family from Brady township and domiciled them in his purchase.

The Gourley family on Ridge avenue, who were under the care of Dr. Jenkins for some time are all convalescing and will soon be well again.

Bills were posted yesterday announcing the time, place and date of holding the November election. At this time Curwensville voters will be asked to vote on increasing the bonded indebtedness of the borough $12,000 for the purpose of purchasing new and more up to date fire apparatus and hose. While voters are not saying very much or how they will handle this question on election day, it is believed by those who promoted the idea, that the question will carry by a good majority. No doubt this borough does need some new hose, etc., it is a question whether it would be good policy at this time to spend such a large sum as asked in the purchase of an electric motor truck, etc. Heretofore the town has always been able to cope with all fires with the present apparatus, and it is the opinion of many that with the purchase of some new hose the apparatus now in use will be sufficient.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion — dark rings under your eyes — pimples — a bilious look in your face — dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 30c per box. All druggists.

Seven Big War Work Agencies, United In Relief Army, Take Care of Our Boys From Home Camps To Trenches

Activities of Organizations Which Have Joined in Drive For $170,500,000 So Varied That Uncle Sam's Fighting Men Can Find Clean, Wholesome Amusement in Every Camp and at the Front—What Your Money Is Doing.

HOME follows the soldier wherever he goes through the seven great organizations that join hands to help every boy who leaves home behind.

His first ride to camp from home is in a troop-train where a Y. M. C. A. secretary always abroad, always cheering lonely, homesick boys.

As soon as he gets to camp he finds that the Y. M. C. A., the K. of C., the Jewish Welfare Board, or the Salvation Army have the "huts" that have made them famous. There he can write letters home, play games, see motion picture shows, hear lectures, attend religious services, and keep up his studies in classes conducted regularly under the best of teachers and professors.

Can Meet His Friends

There, too, he finds the Hostess House of the Y. W. C. A., where his mother or sweetheart or his sister may come to see him, and the branch of the American Library Association where he can borrow books to read.

When the boy has a few days leave and goes into a strange city to spend it, he finds there the War Camp Community Service, ready and willing to direct him about the city, to tell him of the amusements and accommodations he will find.

When the time comes to start over there, the boy finds a Y. M. C. A. secretary on the troopship. He supplies writing paper, organizes games for the idle hours, and usually has moving-pictures which help out the evenings. The boy is sorry to leave him when they dock, but the first person he meets on French soil is another secretary, K. of C., or Y. M. C. A., or J. W. B., who tells him where he can go and what he can do in foreign city.

Go Right to the Front

At the front, perhaps, the greatest work is done. Here a real taste of HOME, the thing the boy craves more than any other one thing, comes with the hut erected by the friendly helpers. Here when there is no warm, dry spot in camp, he finds warmth and cheer, smiles, songs, a place to rest, writing paper, hot drinks, cigarettes.

In the trenches, the Salvation Army, the K. of C., and the Y. M. C. A. follow to the front line. Boys who come out of the front line, cold and dead-tired, meet a cheery smile and get a smoke and cup of hot chocolate. That is the nearest approach to home that a man in the trenches finds.

Even to the prison-camps the secretaries go, taking what cheer and comfort they can to the thousands of boys who are interned—both Allied and German.

Make Women Comfortable

The Y. W. C. A. has its huts for nurses, telephone girls, and for munition workers, in addition to the Hostess Houses which are replicas of the Hostess Houses in camps at home.

More than 3,600 separate buildings have been erected or rented. More than 15,000 uniformed workers are in service on both sides of the Atlantic. More than 500 tons of supplies go to France every week for the organizations to distribute to the boys. More than 15 miles of motion picture film goes to France each week for the boys' entertainment. Wherever a soldier or sailor or a marine goes, HOME goes with him, through the medium of one or the other of these seven great co-operating organizations.

LETTERS FROM OUR SOLDIER BOYS

LETTER FROM RUSSELL FLEGAL

September 19 1918

My Dear Mother:

There has been a little lapse of time since I last wrote, but during this period I have been chasing a few Huns. You probably know all there is to be known about our own little drive by this time so it is unnecessary for me to try to give any details. As I have often said before I will give you the fine points when I get back home and all these things happening now will be but mere visions of the past. The all important part just now is that I went thru the first few days of the fight and came out without a scratch. We were under the very muzzles of our guns when they burst forth their shower of shells and by day light over we went and on, we went and the cowards ran so fast we could hardly keep pace with them. It wasn't merely a hare and hound chase either for before we were relieved we side stepped many a machine gun bullet and ducked countless shells, more than once I wiped the cold sweat from my forehead and I guess others did too. But our old division put forth the goods as it has done more than once before. To think we drove the dogs from ground they have called theirs for four years but they have lost their happy homes and forever, too. It was interesting to see and talk to the French people who have stuck to their homes all these years while these Huns enslaved them. Guess maybe they were not glad to see the Americans. They simply beat a hasty retreat as they were not the least particular what they left behind. One might find anything from eats to iron crosses but I don't bother myself with relics of any sort. My one aim, as was that of most of us, was to make the Boche scratch gravel sky high and this we did and to a Queen's taste.

It is impossible to tell you even enough to give you a fair idea of what really takes place during a drive like this. There is too much, too many things happen it would be all but an endless letter. One man's part is but a mite, it's all of us put together that makes the Hun do the "about face." My part is small but believe me, Mother, there isn't many of the boys that try to take more in than I do. I see things and I don't forget them. I learn a lesson and it sticks to me as never before. Yesterday I received 18 letters, 3 post and several issues of The Progress, Needles to say I was contented. News from home, mother and friends what more might one ask for. I read each and every letter till I could almost give them off by memory. I was more than relieved to know you were feeling much better. I trust you are well by now. Do take care, Mother. Don't worry yourself with the unnecessary things.

So father got the auto fever again. I was more than glad to hear it for I believe you folks can enjoy a car more just now than ever before. Father said he wished I was home to keep the dust off it, well if he has it when I do get back I can surely make up for the lost time. Of course it will take a little time for me to get used to that life again. But remember this Mother when I get home my shoulder goes to the plough and stays there. My mind is made up along certain lines and I mean business. I suppose John keeps the boat pretty well oiled, not so?

I read H's and W's letters with interest and I can not help but call them recruits. They have some things to learn in this army game and one is to know when they are well fixed. Walts seems to me to be trying to buck the game and I would like to tell him this if it is not too late "it can not be bucked." I know exactly what he is up against, who he is dealing with and his attitude, he is all wrong. He thinks he had it hard. Goodness knows he never has seen any real hell and I only hope he never does. Let him take what I say for what it is worth. Horaces letters are typical and I hope he knows when to hit a feather bed, he always did in civilian life. The boys are old enough to think for themselves so I will simply think and say nothing.

I had a fine letter from Alta. She seems all wrapped up in her war work. It is certainly great for us boys over here to know that each and every one back home is doing his or her bit. You folks don't realize like we do that it takes the push from home even to start the drive like this one. It is the moral and financial support at home that gives us the "pep."

I received fathers' letters of credit and so have no more fear of me going broke. I have also received $50 from your cables both thru Comptoir National D'Escampte De Paris and from their agency of Barritz. I have received notice from Cox & Co. of $25 I think this the Red Cross credit don't you. But I will get it all straight as soon as I get back from the front this time. You dear ones at home have certainly done your best to help me. I will ever be thankful. I have $500 [illegible] and I am depositing it with the pay master with [illegible] on discharge.

I saw J. Barry just before we went over the top this time. I recognized him the minute I saw him. I think him all right. I will [illegible] you [illegible] Love. Direct your next letter about as [illegible] Guy Lowland in Roan. I know you already [illegible] from home, from Bell [illegible] Co. address. I know him well.

There is a possible chance of my getting my leave if we go back for a rest this time. It's only a chance tho, for a soldier doing actual service is usually on the job nowadays. We have a real job on our hands and I guess you know our division is right on the job. The world will learn some day what our outfit has done.

Write Mrs. W. F. Jones, Moscow, Texas. This is the mother of my best pal. We go thru thick and thin together, always bunk together, etc.

Must close with best wishes to all and a prayer from the front to those at home.

WILL RECOMMEND TO KEEP SALOONS CLOSED INDEFINITELY

Pittsburgh, Oct. 24 —"Pennsylvania must be absolutely free of influenza before the ban closing theaters and saloons is lifted, said Dr. Adolph Koenig, county medical inspector yesterday. Dr. Carl Scaffle, representative of the state health commission, concurred in the statement. Although Philadelphia is about to be released from the epidemic, it would be a calamity to permit the opening of saloons and cafes, they said.

The decision to recommend the enforcement of the closing order was reached after a conference with men who are fighting the disease all over the state.

Dr. Scaffle and Dr. Koenig offered a mortality chart for Pennsylvania which indicates that the grip is about to take a throttle hold on Pittsburgh and its environs.

Major W. H. Davis, director of health, announced a death total of 155 from pneumonia and influenza. He said that 11,565 influenza cases to date showed a decrease despite the higher mortality.

MERCY MUNITIONS NEEDED IN TRENCHES

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, Fighting Author, Makes Stirring Appeal for Y. W. C. A.

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, who wrote "Carry On," says of the war work which the Y. W. C. A. is doing: "You at home cannot fight with your lives, but you can fight with your mercy. The Y. W. C. A. is offering you just this chance. It garrisons the women's support trenches, which lie behind the men's. It asks you to supply them with munitions of mercy that they may be passed on to us. We need such supplies badly. Give generously that we may the sooner defeat the Hun."

What Lieut. Dawson says of the Y. W. C. A. he might have said of all the national organizations which are coming together for the biggest financial campaign that organizations have ever headed. All the $170,500,000 to be raised by the seven great national organizations the week of November 11 will be used to garrison and supply the support trenches behind the lines. They are the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association, War Camps Community Service and Salvation Army.

American girls in various uniforms mingle strangely with picturesque Brittany costumes in France. The American Y. W. C. A. has a hostess house in Brittany where the Signal Corps women live and a hut where the nurses spend their free time. Both these centers are fitted with many of the comforts and conveniences of home.

"At a tea given at the nurses' hut one Saturday afternoon," writes Miss Mabel Warner, of Salina, Kansas, Y. W. C. A. worker there, "there was an odd gathering—one admiral, a bishop, a Presbyterian minister, a Roman Catholic priest, a doctor, an ensign, one civilian and myself."

First Victory Boy's Work.

"Say, I'm wise to you, all right," a Western Union messenger boy whispered to one of the directors of the United War Work Campaign in the New York headquarters. The director's desk had [illegible] just been moved in and the work [illegible] the big drive had barely begun.

"I'm onto your [illegible]," the boy went on as he swung a [illegible] fist over the desk "you're goin' to give us fellows that ain't old enough to go to war a chance to earn an' give to back up a fighter an help win the war. Listen; I'm in on it."

The [illegible] bill he dropped on the desk made him the first of "a million boys back of the million fighters" who are to be [illegible] as Victory Boys during the drive.

58 JEWISH WORKERS GOING "OVER THERE"

Col. Barker Bids Godspeed to the Graduates of Training School.

The whole-souled co-operation between the seven great organizations working for the happiness and welfare of our soldiers and sailors was recently illustrated at the graduation exercises of the tenth class of the Jewish Welfare Board's Training School in New York. Col. William S. Barker, who went to France representing the Salvation Army with the first contingent of our troops and has been "over there" fifteen months, was the principal speaker and wished the fifty-eight Jewish workers of the class God-speed, while Louis Marshall, the prominent Jewish attorney and philanthropist of New York, lauded the work of the Salvation Army among the boys at the front.

"What our fighting boys need is inspiration and heart and character in those who are there to help them," declared Col. Barker. "You will represent in the camps and overseas the ideals and standards of the Jewish faith, and it is up to you above all things to be consistent in your religious practices. Practice what you preach. That, I am sure, has been the secret of our own success. If you live up to the principles of your faith and give what you have to give from a heart big with love, the boys will respect you, whether they be Protestant, Catholic or Jew."

The newly graduated field workers will make a total of 260 men doing field work in our camps and naval training stations under the auspices of the Jewish Welfare Board. The Board has about fifty "huts" in the various camps and maintains centers in all large cities where soldiers and sailors of all faiths are welcomed. A headquarters has recently been established in Paris, and 100 men are being recruited here for overseas work. There are now nearly 125,000 Jews serving in the army and navy.

CURE FOR BLUES NEAR THE CAMPS

Community Service Takes Place of Mother, Friends and Home for Soldiers.

Ten young officers of the Student Army Training Corps of the University of Detroit recently applied for a furnished house and a housekeeper who would not be a servant, but, as one young officer expressed it, "the sort of woman to whom the boys can call out 'Hello, mother!' when they come in the front door."

Homesickness is the malady for which War Camp Community Service supplies innumerable cures.

"We've got your number," says the W. C. C. S. to the homesick boy from camp with leisure to spend in any one of the three hundred towns scattered over the country. While he's wondering what on earth he'll do with himself when he gets there, not knowing a soul in town and with a limited percentage of his "thirty per" in his pocket, along comes a friendly printed card from the local branch of his own lodge announcing a reception that night especially for soldier members. By the same mail the Methodist church sends an announcement of all its meetings addressed to him, with This Means You printed at the bottom. How did they know he was a Methodist?

He had forgotten about the little "Personal Card" he made out at the adjutant's request during his first day in camp when it was only one of the endless details in the round of dentists and doctors and general confusion. The W. C. C. S. had not only his number, but his name and address. In home town, the name of the school he'd gone to and a good bit about the things he was fondest of doing—each fact written into a little blank on the card especially for it.

had voted against tabling the McLemore resolution warning American citizens not to travel on foreign ships. He referred to the vote on this resolution as the "crucial test" of loyalty, and the voters of Wisconsin took testimony on the charge. They declared the point not to have been well taken, acquitted Lenroot and sent him to the Senate. Again Mr. Wison, in the matter of woman suffrage, combined his duties as leader of the nation and leader of his party, by delivering an address to the senate, in which he took the ground that passage of the suffrage amendment was required as a war measure. The Senate pondered his demand and failed to sustain it. Mr. Wilson's plea did not change a single vote. The result did not mean that Mr. Wilson's leadership in the conduct of the war been adversely affected. It simply meant that the Senate did not share his belief that the suffrage question had a bearing on the successful conduct of the war. Had the Senate believed with him, the suffrage amendment would have been passed. But Senators generally were of the opinion that the question was a political and not a military one, and they registered their votes in accord with this opinion.

The same result is expected by the Republican leaders in event Mr. Wilson should take the advice of Burleson and Tumulty and declare a Democratic congress a war need—rather than a political need—of the administration. In promulgating such a statement, if Mr. Wilson should see fit to do so, he would have to appeal to the judgment of the voters of the country. If they really believe that Dent is making a better war chairman of the Military Affairs committee than Julius Kahn would make, or they really believe that the election of a Republican House would impair the war vigor of the administration, they will accept Mr. Wilson's appeal as coming from the seat of national authority. If they have no misgivings with regard to Republican loyalty, if they believe that Republican supremacy in the House and the Senate would tend to strengthen, rather than weaken, Mr. Wilson's efforts to bring the war to a victorious close. they will regard Mr. Wilson's appeal as being directed to them from the chief of the Democratic party, an appeal carrying political rather than patriotic significance.

It is not believed that Mr. Wison would wish to depreciate the value of the co-operation of the Republicans of Congress, which, on previous occasions, he has acknowledged. It is not believed that he would care to assume that position in the eyes of the public. The Republican leaders await the outcome with philosophical calmness.

Massachusetts voters at the coming election will pass on a proposed amendment to the State constitution, which will permit women to serve as notaries public.

CLEARFIELD "SACRIFICE AND BUY" CLUB

The ladies composing the membership of the "Buy and Sacrifice Club" have every reason to feel proud of their efforts to put the big loan across. During the last three days of the campaign when it begun to look as though the flu epidemic was going to upset the success of the Fourth Liberty Loan, the ladies conceived the idea that they must "buy bonds and further sacrifice pleasures and luxuries to guarantee the success of the loan. All of those who composed the membership had already bought a bond or two and therefore membership in the club meant an extra effort and an added sacrifice on their part. Following is the complete list of members. We are glad to thus give them public recognition for their efforts.

This "Club" was started as a last minute effort to urge women to buy bonds voluntarily in order to help the loan which all over the coutry, was threatening to fall behind

Its rule for membership—"If you have not bought a bond buy one. If you have bought a loan buy one more" sufficiently explains its object.

NECESSARY WAR MEASURE

The distribution of the city dailies in Clearfield will be placed under martial law if the present plans of Mayor Chase and the County Committee of Public Safety work out.

This advanced step will be taken as a sanitary measure as well as a matter of public convenience. Several dozen people forbidden to congregate inside on account of the flu courted disease and death standing outside in the rain for ages this morning waiting after the train came in for the papers to be delivered.

Meanwhile Nero fiddled around and the Deacon cometh not out of the darkness, while everybody swore. Help!

THE WAY TO USE VAPORUB FOR SPANISH INFLUENZA

The Influenza Germs Attack the Lining of the Air Passages. When Vapo Rub is Applied Over Throat and Chest, the Medicated Vapors Inhaled Loosen the Phlegm, Open the Air Passages and Stimulate the Mucous Membrane to Throw Off the Germs.

Most authorities now agree that what we call Spanish Influenza is simply the old-fashioned grip, which was epidemic here in 1889-90. The influenza germs enter through the nose and wouth and attack the lining of the air passages—nose ,throat and bronchial tubes.

There is no cure or specific for this disease, but Nature will throw off the attack, if only you conserve your strength. A competent physician should always be called. The use of VapoRub does not interfere with any internal treatment and it is now being used by broadminded physicians everywhere, in order to stimulate the lining of the air passages to throw off the grip germs, to aid in loosening the phlegm and keeping the air passages open, thus making the breathing easier. Hot. wet towels should be applied over the throat, chest and back between teh shoulder blades to open the pores. Then VapoRub should be rubbed in over the parts until the skin is red, spread on thickly and covered with two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck as the heat of the body liberates the ingredients in the form of vapors. These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the parts affected. At the same time, VapoRub absorbed through and stimulates the skin, attracting the blood to the surface, and thus aids in relieving the congestion within.

HOW TO AVOID THE DISEASE

Evidence seems to prove that this is a germ disease spread principally by human contact, chiefly thru coughing, sneezing, or spitting. So avoid persons having colds—which means avoiding crowds—common drinking cups, roller towels, etc. Keep up your bodily strength by plenty of exercise in the open air, and good food.

KEEP FREE FROM COLD

Above all, keep free from colds, as colds irritate the lining of the air passages and render them much better breeding places for the germs.

Use Vick's VapoRub at the very first sign of a cold. For a head cold, melt a little VapoRub in a spoon and inhale the vapors, or better, still, use VapoRub in a benzoin steam kettle. If this is not available, use an ordinary tea-kettle. Fill half-full of boiling water, put in half a teaspoon of VapoRub from time to time—keep the kettle just slowly boiling and inhale the steam arising.

NOTE—Vick's VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist, who found how to combine, in salve form, Menthol and Camphor with such volatile oils as Eucalyptus, Thyme, Cubebs, etc., so that when the salve is applied to the body heat, these ingredients are liberated in the form of vapors. VapoRub can be had in three sizes—20c, 60c, $1.20—at all druggists. While comparatively new in certain parts of the North, it is the standard home remedy in the South and West for all forms of cold troubles—over six million jars were sold last year. VapoRub is particularly recommended for children's croup or colds, as it is externally applied and can, therefore, be used freely and often—without the slightest harmful effects.

THE MOOSE ARE CALLING IN FORESTS OF NEW BRUNSWICK

When the grass begins to crackle underfoot; when the leaves begin to swirl in mad edies and the naked branches to reach after them impotently; when the morning crispness hints of coming frosts; then the man with a bit of sportsman blood in his veins, feels the call of the wild.

Follows a great furbishing and oiling of guns. There's rummaging through closets for boots and leggings and oilskins and warm duck coats. There's writing of letters to places with weird Indian names, to engage guides and camps. There's a lot of discussion with fellow-sportsmen as to what to take and what not to take, but there is no discussion as to where to go—at least not for the Eastern sportsman. New Brunswick is the hunting ground for him. Accessibility and plentifulness of game guide his choice.

The keen desire of every hunter going into the north woods is to get a moose head. This desire is usually gratified by going to New Brunswick. Its deep woods shelter moose, caribou and deer in great numbers. Black bear and Canada lynx, or wild-cat, offer further big game sport while small game is to be found in riotous abundance.

Stalking moose is the keenest of sport and demands much skill and caution. Moose, as a rule, feed "down wind" and, with their eyes protecting them from the front and their wonderful sense of smell and hearing from the rear, stalking must be done "up wind." Getting your moose by "calling" is possible during the early days of the season.

New Brunswick guides and camps are unexcelled and are prepared to accommodate women who are often members of hunting parties. In the case of a guide like six-foot Harry Allen, a hunter—man or woman—is assured of royal sport, good cure and an all-around fine time
